FOR RELEASE

Mr. Dennis Farr, Assistant Keeper of the Tate Gallery, London, will lecture on 20TH CENTURY BRITISH ART - A SURVEY, Tuesday, April 17, 4 p.m. at The Cleveland Museum of Art.

Farr will emphasize post-war developments in British art as it emerged from and contrasted with wartime isolation. He will include in his discussion the Vorticists, Unit One and the impact of European and American art movements on the British School.

Farr studied at the University of London (Courtauld Institute of Art) and has written many reviews and articles for the Burlington Magazine, Connoisseur, Encyclopaedia Britannica and other publications.

The lecture will be held in the Museum Auditorium and is open free to the public.
